

Managing People to Perform

1 DAY WORKSHOP

Mobilise your organisation's managers to assemble and lead high-performing teams. Learn how to become a transformational leader by mastering relationship development and building positive team dynamics.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this workshop you will be able to:

- Build high-performing teams by understanding the diverse behavioural drives and needs of your team members.
- Use group analytics to decode and leverage the unique dynamics and work styles of organisations of any scale, from project teams to large units.
- Develop and apply practical organisational management strategies that maintain team members at their peak performance and engagement.

Immediate Impact

- Increased productivity driven by improved interpersonal relationships and positive team dynamics
- More effective communication and enhanced collaboration, within and across teams
- Greater employee engagement fostered by more effective management and leadership practices

Expert Facilitators

This workshop is led by management consultants around the globe. Our facilitators are experts in PI science and practice. With an average of 20 years of business and consulting experience, they help you optimise business impact and performance.

The entire workshop was mind-blowing, as it relates to human behaviour and what drives needs. Its connection to hiring, team dynamics, leadership, coaching, and mentoring, as well as succession planning, is an eye-opener.”
